Re: United States v. Oldamo Frazer, 22 Mag. 8233, 22 Cr. 665

Dear Judge Krause:

On or about October 13, 2022, the defendant was arrested and presented before this Court on a criminal complaint charging him with narcotics offenses. Upon the Government's application with the defendant's consent, the Court sealed the record of the proceeding and delayed docketing of associated filings through December 12, 2022, subject to renewal. On December 6, 2022, the grand jury returned a three-count Indictment charging the defendant with the offense conduct outlined in the complaint. That Indictment was filed publicly. See 22 Cr. 665. The Government does not intend to seek an extension of the sealing period for the complaint, arrest warrant, and the record and filings associated with the October 13, 2022 presentment, and accordingly respectfully submits that the aforementioned materials can be unsealed.

SO ORDERED.

ANDREW E. KRAUSE
United States Magistrate Judge

Dated: December 12, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
